

What wines give you the best value?

Insights from reviews published in Wine Enthusiast Magazine

|   |  |   |
|---|--|---|
| Germany, Austria, and Chile lead the way when it comes to well reviewed wines at lower price points | Average ratings stayed quite similar by country, but the price points varied | The five countries where you get the least value on average |
|---|--|---|

What wines give you the best value?

Insights from reviews published in Wine Enthusiast Magazine

Germany, Austria, and Chile lead the way when it comes to well reviewed wines at lower price points

Average ratings stayed quite similar by country, but the price points varied

The five countries where you get the least value on average

What wines give you the best value?

Insights from reviews published in Wine Enthusiast Magazine

Average ratings stayed quite similar by country, but the price points varied

The five countries where you get the least value on average

Looking at individual provinces: Rheinhessen, Colchagua Valley, and Beaujolais are especially good deals

| Country   | Value Score | Avg Rating | Avg Price |
|-----------|-------------|------------|-----------|
| US        | 2.37        | 87.82      | $37.03   |
| Argentina | 2.50        | 88.23      | $35.31   |
| France    | 2.80        | 88.57      | $31.69   |
| Italy     | 2.90        | 87.81      | $30.32   |
| Australia | 2.98        | 87.25      | $29.25   |

What wines give you the best value?

Insights from reviews published in Wine Enthusiast Magazine

The five countries where you get the least value on average

Looking at individual provinces: Rheinhessen, Colchagua Valley, and Beaujolais are especially good deals

Gamay, Sauvignon Blanc, and Riesling grape varieties offer well reviewed wines at a lower price point

What wines give you the best value?

Insights from reviews published in Wine Enthusiast Magazine

Looking at individual provinces: Rheinhessen, Colchagua Valley, and Beaujolais are especially good deals

Gamay, Sauvignon Blanc, and Riesling grape varieties offer well reviewed wines at a lower price point

The top five single wines to look for with the highest value scores

What wines give you the best value?

Insights from reviews published in Wine Enthusiast Magazine

Looking at individual provinces: Rheinhessen, Colchagua Valley, and Beaujolais are especially good ..

Gamay, Sauvignon Blanc, and Riesling grape varieties offer well reviewed wines at a lower price point

The top five single wines to look for with the highest value scores

| Title   | Country | Province         | Winery              | Value Score | Points | Price   |
|---|---------|------------------|---------------------|-------------|--------|---------|
| Sundance 2011 Merlot (Maule Valley)           | Chile   | Maule Valley     | Sundance            | 9.56        | 86.00  | $9.00  |
| Schmitt Söhne 2015 Riesling                   | Germany | Rheinhessen      | Schmitt Söhne       | 9.56        | 86.00  | $9.00  |
| Henry Fessy 2012 Nouveau (Beaujolais)         | France  | Beaujolais       | Henry Fessy         | 9.56        | 86.00  | $9.00  |
| Domaine du Tariquet 2007 Ugni Blanc-Colombard | France  | Southwest France | Domaine du Tariquet | 9.44        | 85.00  | $9.00  |
| Dopff & Irion 2008 Crustaces White (Alsace)   | France  | Alsace           | Dopff & Irion       | 9.00        | 90.00  | $10.00 |